RICHARD BECKER, FINANCIAL ADVISOR AND OWNERS OF TEXAS RETIREMENT PLANNERS ANNOUNCE PARTNERSHIP WITH NATIONAL NONPROFIT

F4FI

FOUNDATION FOR FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE
A NATIONAL 501(C)(3) NONPROFIT

F4FI IS A CULTURE OF CHARITY,

LIVING THE JOY OF GIVING,
AS WE HELP CHANGE THE LIVES OF MANY.

Today, Richard Becker, Financial Advisor and owner of Texas Retirement Planners announced the newly formed partnership with Foundation for Financial Independence (F4FI), a national 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to improving public financial literacy. The foundation provides a team of expert educators to host no-cost virtual webinars and in-person workshops nationwide. They empower individuals and families to make informed decisions that maximize income potential and help afford a higher standard of living. As a F4FI educator, Richard will donate time and expertise conducting workshops throughout the South Texas area, helping educate various groups on a variety of financial topics such as Social Security, taxes, estate planning, retirement.

Groups that typically request F4FI workshops include companies, professional associations, churches, school organizations, government agencies, social clubs, libraries, and other nonprofits.

- Host organizations benefit by improving goodwill and morale among members.
- Participants benefit from the deep and comprehensive knowledge they gain.
- The expert educators fulfill a personal philosophy to give back to their community, improve financial wellness, and cultivate long-lasting relationships.

F4FI workshops are not sales events. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, the foundation does not bid to agencies, use contracts, or charge group (or participant) fees. F4FI does not endorse nor promote any specific companies, products, services, professional firms, or individuals.

To schedule a workshop with Richard Becker or obtain more information about F4FI, please contact our office, and visit F4FI.org.
